Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

1. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

2. Claims 1-2 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Risman (US 5,828,040) cited by applicant. Risman discloses a rectangular microwave heating applicator with hybrid modes having first (y, figure 1) and second (x, figure 1) transverse dimensions and longitudinal (z, figure 1) dimension, the dimensions being selected, in relation to said predetermined operating frequency, such that the applicator supports a first evanescent $TE_{y_{m,1}}$ hybrid mode (TE_{y31} mode, col. 11, line 37) and a second propagating $TE_{y_{m-2k,1}}$ hybrid mode (TE_{y11} mode, col. 11, line 37), where m is an odd integer larger than 1 and k is a positive integer and where m-2k is positive.

NOTE: In this case m=3 and k=1

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

3. The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

4. Claims 3-5 and 17-18 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Risman (US 5,828,040) cited by applicant, in view of Staats et al (US 3,843,862).

Risman discloses substantially all features of the claimed invention except two parallel feeding slots arranged in the ceiling of the applicator. Staats discloses two parallel (30, 35, figure 2) feeding slots arranged in the ceiling of the applicator (20). It would have been obvious to one ordinary skill in the art at the time the invention was made to utilize in Risman two parallel feeding slots arranged in the ceiling of the applicator as taught by Staats in order to connect the applicator to a feeding waveguide. With regard to claim 5, it would have been obvious to one ordinary skill in the art at the time the invention was made to have each of the slots has the dimension 60x12 mm, in order to adapted for operation at the ISM (standard) frequency of 2450MHz.

5. Claims 6-16 and 19-20 are objected to as being dependent upon a rejected base claim, but would be allowable if rewritten in independent form including all of the limitations of the base claim and any intervening claims.
